AMENDMENTS

Alterations to these by-laws submitted in writing at a regular meeting may be passed by a two-thirds vote of those present at the next regular meeting.

REPORT OF PRESIDENT

At the end of our third year, your President is gratified that he can report the Society to be in thriving condition, as will be evidenced by the records of the Secretary, Treasurer and Recorder.

The income from the $5000 left us by our generous benefactor, the late George E. Hoadley, combined with our dues has placed the Society in a position, not only to take care of running expenses, but to acquire articles of value for our permanent collection which were obtainable only through purchase, and also to reach the end of the year free of debt and with a healthy surplus.

The immediate prospect of substantial additions to our building funds is not apparent but your President has assurances from valued members that the Building Fund will be augmented by gifts from them in due time. Your President is indeed optimistic in view of such assurances, and feels that members may well be, although our collection of books, manuscripts, curios and relics deserves a place for use and exhibition as soon as possible, particularly, as many friends have made valuable gifts to our collection this year, as in years past.

If our funds permit, plans may shortly be proposed for temporary headquarters for the Society.

It will gratify members to learn that the old Seth Young (Mack or Barber) House in Windsor, built in 1749, to which reference was made in our Second Annual Report, has been purchased and restored by one of our members, Miss Helen E. Royce, who now makes it her home.

Our meetings have been fairly well attended but your President came to the conclusion that it would be good policy to have fewer regular meetings and to make an effort to have these meetings of exceptional interest. During the coming year a Yale "Chronicles of America" photo-play will be shown at each meeting.

We have lost several valued members by death during the year and a few by resignation, in a few cases necessarily assumed on account of continued neglect to respond to statements or notices. We particularly request members who wish to withdraw to advise us in order that we may be in no doubt as to their wishes. Several new Life and Sustaining, as well as Active members have joined us and the end of the year finds our organization numerically as well as financially prosperous.

With a most cordial expression of appreciation to his associate Officers and other members for their steadfast support and loyalty I close this, my third annual report, as President of our Society.

Respectfully submitted,

George E. Crosby, Jr.,
President.

REPORT OF SECRETARY

We have held five regular meetings during the year. At the Second Annual Meeting, September 26, 1923, it was voted to appropriate $15.00 to be offered for prizes to pupils in any school in Windsor for the best one-act play, essay, and short story based on incidents in Windsor history. The only prize awarded was to Miss Eleanor Goslee for her play, "A Bissell's Ferry Romance." It is hoped that this play may be presented on the stage for the enjoyment of our members during the coming year. At this meeting a delightful talk was given by the Rev. Sherrod Soule on "The Diary of a Conservative of One Hundred Years Ago." The diary referred to was that of Dr. Thomas Robbins of East Windsor.

At a Special Meeting of the Executive Committee held October 22, 1923, it was voted that the gift of $5,000 bequeathed the Society by the late George E. Hoadley of Hartford, which had just been turned over to the Society by the United States Security Trust Company, the executor of Mr. Hoadley's estate, be called the George Edward Hoadley Fund and as such become a part of our Building Fund. A special committee in charge of its investment was appointed, consisting of Clayton P. Chamberlin, Chairman; Rev. John F. Quinn, and Wells F. Holcomb.

At the regular meeting on November 6, 1923, the action of the Executive Committee was confirmed. This meeting was addressed by Secretary P. L. Buttrick of the Connecticut State Forestry Association, his subject being the effects of forests on the early Connecticut settlements. Unusually interesting lantern slides were shown and the meeting was voted a most profitable and enjoyable one.

On January 15, 1924, our Fourteenth Regular Meeting was held. This meeting was featured by the receipt and exhibition of gifts from Mrs. Annie Griswold and by other recent gifts and purchases for the Society's collection.

The regular meeting on March 18th was addressed by Mathias Speiss of South Manchester, who gave a valuable talk on "Anniversary Celebrations," based on his experience as a member of the general committee in charge of the recent Centennial Celebration in South Manchester, Conn. Several valuable gifts to the Society from Mrs. Walter W. Loomis, of Windsor, were presented at this meeting.

The last meeting of the year was held on May 27th and a most unusual treat was afforded them, a fact best evidenced by the action of the Society in later electing the speaker, Mr. Charles H. Lane of Hartford, to Honorary Membership, in recognition of his services to the State and country during the great World War. Mr. Lane was in charge of the Department of Justice activities in Bridgeport, Conn., and told us some of his remarkable experiences in a very delightful manner. There were many expressions of hope that Mr. Lane might favor us again.

We have lost by death and resignation several valued members. We have also enrolled several new Life, Sustaining, and Active members.

The Secretary and other officers have received a number of requests for genealogical and historical information, all of which have been given the best attention permitted by our time and resources.

C. Nancy Maude,
Secretary.

REPORT OF RECORDER

The end of the third year of our Society finds many curious, quaint and valuable gifts in its possession, which with proper housing facilities would prove of great interest to the lover of antiques, and a source of immeasurable value to the student and seeker of genealogical data; as our records show that we now have approximately eleven hundred books and pamphlets, of which from forty to fifty per cent deal directly or indirectly with genealogical references and historical happenings, also some two hundred and fifty curios, numerous photographs, maps and autographs appear among the listed gifts.

While the gifts received during the period from September 26, 1923 to September 26, 1924, have not been as numerous as in the past, some very rare and valuable objects have been received. Mr. Wayne Rice of East Windsor (formerly of Windsor), recently deceased, placed in our care an object of unusual interest and value, which he had kept and cherished for many years, being the old wooden clock which formerly was in the belfry of the First Congregational Church of Windsor, all parts of which clock were entirely made of wood. I state on behalf of the Society that we deeply appreciated the trust reposed in us by Mr. Rice realizing as we do the intrinsic value of the clock as an antique, as well as its unusual sentimental value.

Other articles which deserve special mention are an old document referring to the pay of Israel Putnam on the occasion of his leaving his plow in the field to ride to the relief of Boston. This document is of state wide interest, having been recently made the subject of a special article in the Hartford Courant. We are indeed fortunate in obtaining it. We also have a letter dated Dec. 6, 1779, written and signed by Oliver Ellsworth, and an old stage coach and one horse shay, both being in splendidly restored condition.

One of our latest and most valuable gifts is a beautifully framed set of three steel engravings of paintings by Dr. Bellows' father. Lack of space forbids the detailed description we should like to give here, but will give at a later date.

At this time I wish to thank, on behalf of the Officers of the Society, all those who have so generously contributed during the past year, and sincerely hope that during the coming year our gifts will be as numerous as in the past. Again I call attention to the fact that all materials, records and facts which pertain in any manner to Windsor should be preserved for future generations.

I request that all donors when presenting gifts kindly send their names, together with whatever description they deem necessary that proper information may be recorded to distinguish and add additional interest to gifts.

Following I here give the names of the donors, together with a description of the gifts in the order received.
